

ETHNICITY CATERING AND CAFÉ TRAINING

Through the EthniCity Catering and Café Training as a food service worker, you can gain valuable Canadian work experience in our commercial kitchens and cafes, and learn new skills to help you find a permanent job.

EthniCity Catering is a social enterprise of the Centre for Newcomers that provides work experience for immigrants and refugees as well as a multi-ethnic menu for Calgary customers.

What does the program offer and how will you benefit?

- 12 weeks of hands-on experience in customer service and commercial kitchen
- Practice English in a supportive team environment
- Obtain a food safety card from Alberta Health Services
- Support to look for permanent work
- Develop new skills to live and work in Canada

Do you qualify?

- Low-income immigrants/refugees to Canada
- Unemployed or underemployed and looking for a job
- Lack of Canadian work experience
- Commitment to a 12-week training and work experience
- Basic English language skills (CLB 3-5)

Please note: This is not a cooking course

For more information, please email
kitchentraining@centrefornewcomers.ca or call 403-536-8817.