

ESL FOR EMPLOYABILITY

Who can take these classes?

Permanent residents, refugees or Canadian citizens (18 years of age or older), including students waiting for CLB 3/4 LINC classes to minimize wait times.

About the program

This program helps adult learners develop the necessary language skills to find work in Canada. This 11-week program offers formal instruction for listening, speaking, reading, and writing skills focused on themes related to job search and employment in Canada.

Students will receive a program certificate upon successful completion of the program.

Please note:

- Childcare is not available for these classes.
- This is not a LINC program. Student CLBs will not be changed
